

What is ACTE?

The Association of Corporate Travel Executives (ACTE) is a not-for-profit education association established by business travel leaders to provide executive-level global education and networking opportunities. ACTE fosters relationships between corporate travel buyers and suppliers. Membership spans all of business travel, from corporate buyers to agencies to suppliers, and accords all sectors equal membership.

ACTE is a respected, internationally recognized authority in the corporate travel management profession. ACTE members are senior-level decision-makers from Global 1000 companies. They are regularly solicited as industry experts for media outlets, advisory bodies, government agencies and ministries, and other associations.

Why Join ACTE?

- Unparalleled global educational and networking events to exchange best practices with senior-level executives.
- Substantial savings on registration fees for global & regional conferences, Executive Forums, PowerTalks, and Webcasts.
- Access to the ACTE Members-Only Web site containing valuable benchmarking information on travel management, procurement, purchasing, and sourcing, as well as surveys, white papers, and educational presentations.
- Complimentary copy of the ACTE Global Membership Directory, connecting you to your fellow ACTE members worldwide.
- Complimentary subscription to the bi-weekly Globalink e-newsletter, the ACTE quarterly Global Business Journal, the Institute for Global Ethics weekly e-newsletter, and other global and regional magazines (T&E, Business Travel Now, and others).
- Complimentary and discounted subscriptions to online benchmarking, procurement, and CSR tools (eBuyerSolutions.com, Topaz International, and the CarbonNeutral carbon emissions calculator).
